Lis - ten Ho - ney Ba - by won't you lis - ten to your lo - vin' Ho - ney child
Lis - ten Ho - ney Ba - by you re - mem - ber when you did - n't have a cent

Tell me why you try to make me jea - lous when you know it drives me wild
Tell me who it was went out and dug up all the coin to pay your rent

Why do you tell - me you love me so true - Then turn a - round - and love
I worked my fing - ers right through to the bone - That was the time when you some one else too - Af - ter all I've done for you - it makes me blue - called me your own - Now your love for me has flown - my job is blown -

Lots of fel - lows haunt me — Lots of fel - lows want me — I would - n't do — it to you.
 'Mem - ber when I told you — Gee I could - n't hold you — You went and left — me a - lone.

Chorus

Why did you do — it to me Babe why did you do — it to me
 Why did you do — it to me Babe why did you do — it to me

When you fell and hurt your leg and lay in bed — Who — put ice on your head —
 When you came a - round and said "Ma rent is due" — Who went wash - ing for you —

Why do you treat - me so mean Babe I've been as good - as can be. When — I'm com - ing Why do you treat - me so mean Babe I'm like a ship - lost at sea. Bought — my cloth - es down the street — I ad - vance but you re - treat — When — I bought the shoes on your feet — and ev - 'ry thing wait - ing for — the choir to sing — Then — I caught you pawn - ing the ring —

Why did you do - it Why did you do - it Why did you do - it to me. — me. —
 Why did you do - it Why did you do - it Why did you do - it to me. — me. —
